Getting to know a Seminarian!!

Seminarian; Logan Hepp

Parish/Town; St. Stephen the Martyr in Omaha

Seminary; Kenrick-Glennon, St. Louis, Missouri

Favorite homemade food/meal; My mom makes some delicious casseroles, especially her chicken and rice recipe. My dad still makes the best steaks I've ever had.

Least favorite thing your parents made/make you do; I hated cleaning the litter-box when I was a kid...especially when my cat started using it while I was cleaning.

Favorite cartoon when growing up; My favorite cartoon was SpongeBob, the first two seasons were way better than whatever they make today.

Favorite Marvel Hero; Favorite Marvel superhero is tough. Captain America is incredibly heroic and virtuous (I'm not sure if I like how edgy he's gotten in the last few movies). I also love Spiderman because he's just a kid trying to find his place in the world which is very relatable.

The worst thing you have ever tasted; Nothing is really coming to mind for worst thing I've ever tasted. One time I threw up and had to hold it in my mouth until I got to the bathroom. That was nasty.

Three events that made the biggest impact on who you are today; SEEK 2013, being a FOCUS Missionary, Seminary formation

What childish things do you still enjoy doing; I don't know what is meant by childish, but I love doing all kinds of things such as growing trees in my room, knitting, reading, rock climbing, playing soccer, ping pong, disc golf and board games.

Fun/Funny event or memory at the seminary; Once I got a bunch of the guys on my floor to help me catch a field mouse that had somehow gotten into my room.

We moved my bed, book shelf, and area rug. Finally, after lots of yelling and shouting, I caught it (I was wearing thick leather gloves) and as we were trying to decide what to do with it, it jumped out of my grasp and ran under a door that we didn't have the key to. So we shoved cardboard under the door to block it from coming back out that way. We never saw it again.

One who says his Rosary alone only gains the merit of that one Rosary. But if he says it together with others, he gains the merit of each Rosary. This is the law of public prayer.

Pray a rosary for your priests and seminarians today!!!

Running from your vocation!

What will happen to me if I run away from my vocation? What are the consequences if I do not accept what God is calling me to do? What will happen if I pray to know God's will, he tells me that he wants me to become a priest,(or religious) then I say "no!"?

First of all, will I lose my salvation? Will I go to hell? No. A vocation is a call and responding to it is a free choice. A vocation is a request, a petition from God saying, "I love you. I invite you. I am asking you to do this, to help me bring the kingdom of God to fulfillment." God will not hunt you down and send you the plagues of Job because you said no to his invitation to become a priest. Remember God does not need us. He is omnipotent. He is infinite in power and can build the Kingdom of God without our help. Because he loves us, he wants us to have the privilege of cooperating with him and to demonstrate our dignity by graciously saying yes to his call. - *TO SAVE A THOUSAND SOULS --Fr. Marriage is the REAL vocation crisis, in the United States...
We have a vocation crisis to life-long, life-giving loving, faithful marriage. If we take care of that one, we'll have all the priests and nuns we'll need for the Church.

Cardinal Timothy Dolan

St John Vianney (1786-1879) Patron of Priests

If I were to meet a priest and an angel, I should salute the priest before I saluted the angel. The latter is the friend of God but the priest holds His place.

If a priest knocks on the door of a church and the priest in charge has absolutely no idea who he is. How can he tell whether the visitor is really a priest in good standing, or one who's been suspended and forbidden to celebrate the sacraments, or merely a poor soul suffering from delusions- or even in worse, some sort of con-artist? A genuine priest should be able to present a "commendatory letter" known as a celebret, from the Latin word meaning "let him celebrate," or "he may celebrate." The letter or the celebret proves that the man claiming to be a priest is the real deal. It is signed by his bishop or religious superior and renewed each year. <http://canonlawmadeeasy.com> (Paraphrased)

Psssttt!! Pope Francis said during a homily, "Each one of us, every day, does something ugly." The Bible, in fact, says that even "the most holy people sin seven times a day." It's a great time to go to confession...it helps discern daily life!!
